

Invitation to a workshop on Developing and Managing Successful Language Projects in the Austrian Context

Friday 11th April 2014 (10.00 -16.00) at the European Centre for Modern Languages, Graz

- promoting excellence in language education -

- Would you like to organise a language education project at your school or institution?
- Are you already involved in a language project at a school, university, teacher training college or in adult or community education?
- Do you want to learn more about the European Language Label scheme?
- Do you want to learn about what's involved in planning and running good projects?

During the workshop participants will have the opportunity to:

- Reflect on and share experience about what constitutes a successful, high quality language project
- Discuss examples of projects that have already been successfully completed
- Work with others to plan a future project that is relevant to their students and context
- Learn about the European Language Label scheme, the application process and the criteria used to select projects for an award.

Outline programme

- Introduction and presentations:
 - recognising quality in language education projects - the European Language Label
 - the NELLIP project and the NELLIP Guidelines - a guided tour via the project portal
 - presentations of project examples and ideas
- Reflection task: what makes a good language education project?
- Feedback from the task
- Practical tasks in groups: developing a new project proposal
- Presentation by participants of new project proposals
- Questions & comments
- Workshop evaluation

Participation is free of charge. Refreshments and a light lunch will be provided

If you wish to attend the workshop please contact oettl.verein@ecml.at before 7th April 2014