Meeting report

In the three weeks after the event, please complete this report. It contains two sections:

1. Reporting: this is intended as a feedback on the event, on what was learnt, on how the event will affect your work and on how it will be disseminated. What did you find particularly useful?	I particularly enjoyed hearing about the very different situations concerning home language education and very different approaches to home language assessment in different member states. Good practices from e.g. Finland or Ireland show what the possibilities are for valuing, integrating and assessing home languages in a formal educational context.
How will you use what you learnt / developed in the event in your professional context?	I will use some of the information we gathered in some of the projects in which I am involved, for instance in the website with best practices on heritage language education that we are currently making.
How will you further contribute to the project?	This has not (yet) been discussed.
How do you plan to disseminate the project? <ul style="list-style-type: none">- to colleagues- to a professional association- in a professional journal/website- in a newspaper- other	I will use some of the information we gathered in some of the projects in which I am involved, for instance in the website with best practices on heritage language education that we are currently making. In addition to this, I have already shared some of the material and insights from the workshops with colleagues who were interested in the topic, and will continue to do so in the future as well.
2. Public information
Short text (about 200 words) for the promotion of the ECML event, the project and the envisaged publication with a focus on the benefits for target groups. This text should be provided in your national language(s) to be used for dissemination (on websites, for journals etc.).
Deze online workshop van ECML, die plaatsvond op 2-3 december 2021, was gericht op rationele, doelstellingen en methoden voor de beoordeling van de competenties in de thuistaal van meertalige leerlingen, met als algemeen doel de professionele ondersteuning voor het leren van jonge migranten en voor hun onderwijstrajecten te verbeteren. In samenwerking met het projectteam stelden de deelnemers aan de workshop behoeften vast in verband met beoordelingspraktijken en -materiaal, op basis van de eerste resultaten van de RECOLANG-enquête (open tot december 2022) en getuigenissen van leerlingen en onderwijsactoren. De deelnemers bespraken een reeks verschillende benaderingen en instrumenten voor de beoordeling van competenties in de thuistaal en bespraken zowel hun reikwijdte en hun beperkingen, als onderliggende waardenkaders. Tot slot presenteerde het team initiële aanbevelingen ter ondersteuning van de professionele ontwikkeling van de verschillende betrokken onderwijsactoren.

De toekomstige resultaten van dit project kunnen interessant zijn in een Belgische context, waar heel wat particuliere initiatieven bestaan rond thuistaalonderwijs, om tot een meer solide assessment van thuistaalcompetenties te komen. Bovendien bieden de best practices uit landen als Ierland en Finland ook heel wat inspiratie om thuistaalonderwijs en de beoordeling van de competenties in de thuistaal een vaste plek te geven in het reguliere onderwijsaanbod.
